STORYTELLING

KEYNOTES

STORYTELLER

Storytelling has been practised for thousands of years. We connect, educate, and learn through stories - and applying storytelling into our roles is an excellent way to create comfort, build relationships, form trust and develop cultures.

In this uplifting talk Shil demonstrates this practice by sharing his story, and how it guided him into becoming a professional speaker. He discusses techniques for applying storytelling into how we communicate and shows us how to improve our storytelling ability using AI technology.

NARRATIVE

Relationships are the cornerstone of every successful business. They build trust, create loyalty and shape an organisation's narrative.

All relationships are formed through conversations, the strongest of which are created when we share stories in our conversations.

Research has shown that storytelling accelerates the way we build relationships and in this talk, Shil discusses how to achieve this by applying storytelling techniques into conversations to foster memorable connections.

AUTHENTIC

Authenticity is a value which many organisations invest in heavily to embed into their cultures, across every level.

Displaying authentic behaviours is something every person is capable of, and yet many of us are held back from displaying true authenticity because of fear, insecurity and judgement.

To demonstrate authenticity, Shil shares his unfiltered story, tying it into the values of your organisation to demonstrate how we can all live and work, authentically.

*These topics are tailored for the audience, event theme and delivered with a strategy to ensure a learning outcome for all attendees.
Shil can also build new keynotes for your event.*

EVENT HOST + CURATION

CURATION

Shil has curated conferences around the world. Utilising his experience with TEDx, Shil develops strategies with event organisers around activities, cultural nuances, event themes, panels, event and speaker flow with 3 guiding questions:

1. How can we build an unforgettable event?
2. How can we prepare speakers?
3. How do we ensure audiences connect, learn and share ideas?

The feedback from Shil's events are unanimous,

"His contribution made our event the best we have ever run!"

EVENT HOST

Hosting an event requires a unique blend of conversation, facilitation, humour, improv, wit and storytelling. Shil has innate ability to combine all of this and has been described as,

"A truly exceptional MC and speaker. His ability to connect with the audience and integrate conference themes into his delivery adds a unique dimension not seen in other MCs!"

Shil brings enthusiasm and empathy, interviews and selfie videos, pre and post event content, and creative delivery modes inviting every audience member to feel involved in their conference.

WORKSHOPS

Public speaking and storytelling workshops are a fantastic way of developing a person's confidence and communication ability.

Shil's workshops are built around his Clarity Model - a powerful tool which simplifies all aspects of communication, public speaking and storytelling. This model is a culmination of science, story and strategy - all delivered through Shil's personal experience.

Through conversation, interaction, presentation, practice and play - some of the focus areas include content creation, presentation structure, presence, visual aids and story creation - and every part of this model can be customised to any industry. Through this model teams strengthen their business development, conversation, interview, presenting, pitching and networking skills.

Post workshops, Shil uses his communication AI Software for teams to continue developing their skills.

Every workshop tailored for the audience and organisation, and delivered with a strategy to ensure a learning outcome for all attendees.

COACHING

A man in a dark blue suit, white shirt, and patterned tie is shown from the chest up, holding a tablet computer. He is looking down at the tablet with a focused expression. The background is a blurred indoor setting with a red wall and a white wall.

In 2011, Shil watched “Moneyball” - a movie about a struggling baseball team whose performances were changed through using data analytics. This piqued Shil’s curiosity about using data for speaker coaching. Today, Shil’s vision has led to a revolutionary approach which is being used globally.

By integrating Artificial Intelligence, Shil provides detailed analysis on a person’s speaking ability. He combines this data with his own coaching methodology, developed through his internal “speaker kit” - a systematic approach to speaking using calibration, frequency, music, and sense - and is the only person in the world who has taught himself the methods he uses. His methods have led to Shil becoming a globally renowned speaker in just 5 years.

Shil’s coaching covers communication, speaking and storytelling strategies. Demand is high, places are limited to 10 people per year and requires a 4 month advance to secure a spot.

"When Shil starts speaking he captures the room like no one else I have ever seen. Even hard-core conservationists forgot about their endless to-do lists to soak up the wisdom and the knowledge he shared with us generously during two unforgettable workshops I engaged him for. I can whole heartedly recommend everyone to engage Shil for either keynote speeches or - like me - to train people to become better storytellers."

WWF AFRICA

"I recently had the pleasure to listen to Shil presenting at a conference. With engaged lightness filled with humour, he guided us through the Art of Storytelling and how to communicate with confidence, how we all can excel at our elevator pitch and instead of being indifferent, raise our listeners curiosity.

Shil completely owned the room, had everyone's attention, using his own presentation and life experience as examples. If you get the chance to listen to Shil - take it! "

CAISA WESTIN

"Shil is authentic, refreshing and dynamic. Having attended his Storytelling session virtual I was taken aback and pleasantly surprised how engaging it was. In spite of the distance, us at FSD Kenya being in Nairobi and he in Australia, the power of his content bridged the thousands of miles in physical distance in a medium and style I have never experienced before."

MUGWE MANGA
BOARD ADVISOR
FSD KENYA

"Think about the last time you were truly inspired, motivated, connected, excited, humbled, and passionate at a work event. Take all those feelings, add so many more, multiple them several times over and then add in a sprinkle of magic that makes people leave a room enthused to take what they have heard and do something with it. If you're looking for someone epic contact him!"

EMMA NEWMAN
CHIEF OF STAFF
MERCYCARE

"Shil was a keynote speaker at our annual leadership summit and his presentation was AMAZING. He brings authenticity, vulnerability, and storytelling in a way that is both powerful and refreshing.
